Diane & Robert

Another year gone and how blessed are we to have our health, our family and friends and to live in such a wonderful country as Australia? I guess gratitude is the theme for us at the moment. I am grateful for all the amazing people on the planet who do things to make a difference, who do things to touch people's heart, the people who care for others, those who give what they have to help those who have less. I am continually inspired by the good on this planet and I feel very honoured to live in a time when change is inevitable knowing we do have the technology to turn the world around. I am especially grateful for Robert and my family who support the work I/we do, which often means not seeing me/us for long periods.

Watch these if you want your heart touched

SPIRAL JOURNEY

I only run this program once a year and in 2014 I skipped it so it is scheduled for 2015. It is probably the most profound work I do. Women love it. They make extra ordinary shifts. Assistants love it. Food is delicious home made, organic, healthy. The weekend is nurturing, healing, deeply transformative and has limited numbers.... so if you want to do it (we have registrations already for next year), please ask for a brochure. Come along and find yourself at the deepest level of your core. If you want a brochure email me.....

Spiral is the gift that teaches women how to be strong without losing their femininity.. to be safe in their vulnerability and now to have a connection with themselves and with other women. Spiral has shown me that women are truly a power to be reckoned with and when we all learn to love and honour ourselves and each other, what an amazing world we will have. Kim W

Spiral opens the ability to tap into the higher self and divine blueprint of your soul. A truly transformational opportunity to heal... if you want to take it. To love and accept yourself as you truly are. Melinda B

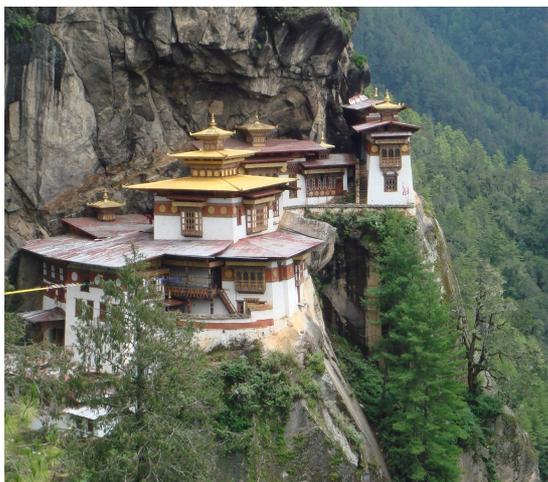

Man's Inner Journey Workshop - A 2 Day Residential Program Friday, Nov 6, 2015 7:00 PM to Sunday, November 8 at 6pm

After the last weekend we did which was incredibly successful and the participants loved it. we have decided to do another, also in Melbourne, also residential at the end of the year. In this extraordinary residential weekend workshop, men have an opportunity to invest in yourself, gain inner peace and give new power and wholeness to your life and to all your relationships.

MIJ is suitable for any man of any age, any career. We had a gorgeous young man of 15, through to men in their 60s and 70s. By experiencing MIJ you can typically expect to achieve greater:

- Insight – learn why you do, what you do
 - Balance – gain greater perspective and the knowledge that you are not alone
 - Inner Peace – learn that you are OK just the way you are
 - Understanding – discover that there is more to life than what you had previously thought
 - Self-Awareness – experience how those who understand themselves are wise
 - Personal Power – release negative emotions about yourself
 - Improved Business and Personal Relationships – improve relationships through insight and understanding
- Price including food, accommodation & materials: $750 for Vic - $650 for other states to help with fares.

INNER SILENCE RETREAT IN BHUTAN

My gorgeous Goddess friend Mala is taking a group on the trip of a lifetime to the one place on my bucket list!!!! “Bhutan has a special place in my heart. As a child I remember crossing the River Manas in Assam, in a small wooden boat, to meet the King of Bhutan (who was my father's friend) in his Summer Palace. The King always loaded us with royal gifts and one of the silver carved boxes still sits on my table to remind me of the beautiful mountains and valleys of this Land of the Thunder Dragon.

It is therefore special for me that Mystic-Asia is presenting its fifth Inner Silence retreat in Amankora, Bhutan, taking us to four of the Aman lodges, driving through breathtaking mountains, endless valleys and clouds close enough to touch.

BHUTAN INFORMATION CONTINUES..... WHEN IS IT: JUNE 6TH TO 14TH

INNER SILENCE IN AMANKORA BHUTAN It is therefore special for me that Mystic-Asia is presenting its fifth Inner Silence retreat in Amankora, Bhutan, taking us to four of the Aman lodges, driving through breathtaking mountains, endless valleys and clouds close enough to touch. You will be guided to silence your mind in a way that not only reduces mental chatter but also helps to discover the inner silence that exists within you. Layer by layer you will unfold this inner silence giving you tools for relaxation, de-stressing, reducing anxiety and dissolving anger. This is a journey into self-discovery that could be the most exciting journey you will ever embark on.

At the same time we will trek to cliffside monasteries, chant with monks, have traditional hot-stone baths, visit Dzongs and understand the Wheel of Life. Sound Healing with Tibetan Singing Bowls is a new addition to our retreat.

A country that measures its success on Gross National Happiness has to be special. Discover this last of the surviving Himalayan Kingdoms before its too late. This year we have discounted rates from Amankora and therefore I have to book early as I have only 6 lodges left. Let me know if you are interested to receive more details for the 8 wonderful days we will be spending together travelling through the mountains, to four of the stunning Aman lodges. Take further advantage and share your room to reduce your investment! If you can't do these dates and would like me to organise the same meditation retreat for you and your friends on other dates please let me know. MALA BARUA - mysticasia.in@gmail.com

TANTRA BALI APRIL 20-25

If you know there is more to sex and love than what you have experienced so far, then this might be for you. It is a miracle to us to see couples shift and change and regain the thing that got them to fall in love in the first place. For others it just deepens their relationship. Bali is a divine place to learn about yourselves and how to create a lasting relationship. 5-1/2 days of learning, laughing, experiencing, all in a safe non-threatening place. No weird stuff, no nudity.

We are half full already and it is only November. Interested? Ask for a registration form. Some really cheap special fares to Bali right now too. The best money you will ever spend on your relationship, we guarantee it!

The week we spent with you was life changing. You guys are great and have something very special together, it's electric and addictive and we both thank you very much for your time, honesty, integrity and professionalism. The content of the course was fantastic, delivery perfect and conclusion precise. You are wonderful people and we had a ball joining you and comfortably say we learnt a lot and our lives feel richer because of you two so thank you very much! Combine this with a fantastic group of people who we now feel privileged to call friends is incredible. I would never have thought I would have said before the course began. I can honestly say it's the best course we have ever attended and you all had a part to play here so thanks. K & O - WA

Tantra was nothing short of incredible. On arrival, we immediately felt safe with the other couples. The course itself focused on forming a deeper connection with our beloved partner. Oh how this pushed buttons within me! The support was nothing short of incredible and I constantly felt loved and un-judged by others. This allowed me to continue peeling off the "walls" I had been keeping up! I don't know of a time where I have felt immersed in so much love in all my life. It made me realise how much more there can be to my relationship and I realised that true connection begins within me, extends to my beloved and then flows out from both of us to others. What a way to begin to change the world! Thank you so much. J&C

We had Monika come and share with us at a Goddess evening and everyone loved it. So here you are... An opportunity to play and learn a bit more about yourself. I loved it.

This is a spiritual piece from the amazing Aluna Joy. Sorry it is so small but I wanted to get it all in!!!!!!

There is a turning point where the transitional pressure becomes so strong, and we have lost any hope of having any control over it, that we burst in and out of control with giddy laughter at all the things that have caused us so much pain. The cosmic relief valve is coming! And when it does, we can embrace all the challenges, and celebrate all the victories that we have achieved as we have traveled through this quagmire of transformation.

The energy these past weeks has felt very confusing, fragmented, disjointed and fuzzy. Comfort zones are all but gone as we second-guess nearly everything, because we still don't have our guide book. Nothing feels familiar as old reference points are fading. We can feel emotional and physical discomfort. We will either sink or swim. Fear will cause you to sink. Love will keep you stay afloat. It is pretty simple if you can hold that focus and don't judge yourself if you can't.

Our new manifesting gears are not syncing properly just yet. We feel like we are spinning and grinding out of control, while our newly downloaded jet engine programs are up and running on a new frequency and at warp speed. While the out of control feeling permeates our lives, we are also feeling a huge inner push to get things done. But as we work, we find that doors slam shut, or we need to make huge course corrections. We might be thinking and working on a few things, and then are dumbfounded when it all just stops in its tracks. Yet oddly things are getting done . . . just not in the way that we had imagined. Welcome to New World Programming 101! We are having another huge upsurge in our bandwidth. Step by step we are moving into a new reality, as we are also letting go of the old one. Yep . . . all at the same time. Confusing huh? Imagine our world as a giant nervous system with an uncountable matrix of nerves. Main nerves are very large and are connected to uncountable, mid-sized and hair-like nerves. Just like a massive tree. Each of these hair-like nerves are connected to each and every thought that we have, and to every manifested thing, idea, program, and belief system on Earth.

We are now experiencing the transition from one (old paradigm) nervous system to another. We are vacillating between the two. We will experience multiple openings as we plug into our new, higher bandwidth nervous system, and, at the same time, we will experience multiple closures to the old system. Sometimes these can feel like someone slammed the door on us at any given moment. When this happens, we find that we can be dunked into a temporary void, and life in that moment can take a sudden and very confusing pause. What where you just doing? These happenings will become common place and happen more frequently. Doors to our old matrix will suddenly shut. The mind can go into overwhelm without a reality check of a "known" world. But these temporary voids are meant to pause and shut down old down paradigms within us, one program at a time. This can leave us feeling stuck and frantic all at the same time; all the while having a hard time communicating and even thinking straight. Focus! What's that? Are you having trouble with nouns? The problem is that we still don't have the guide book to where we are going. We don't know if the door is shutting, because we dropped the ball and lost our focus, or because we need to let go and keep our eyes open for all the good stuff that is coming. We don't know if what we are doing is going in the right direction. But the push to create is undeniable.

We are getting obsessed about shaking things up, or things are things are getting shaken up anyway. We might reorganize and down size, move things around, redecorate, toss out clothes, dump books and CDs. We might want to change our bodies, so we have been called to change our diet and do a cleanse, and then go through a massive cheat cycle . . . and yet it all feels ok! We feel no guilt for that pint of ice cream we just ate. Nothing feels like US anymore because it isn't. It is like we are searching for our new selves. And we are! I am sure that these new selves are on the way, otherwise why would we feel this deep inner and utterly impractical push to search and change to something we cannot conceive of just yet. Yeah . . . if you thought you might be losing your mind before, then this time has ended all doubt. But we are not losing our minds. We are waking up in a new bandwidth.

To add to the confusion, if you pay attention, things are getting done in our lives; just not what we expected them to be. In fact lots of what we thought would manifest is coming out somewhat different . . . and other times, simply polar opposite. The material world is getting rebooted now, and we are the care takers of this reboot. It is time to physically reboot our lives, and what we do for ourselves, we do for the world. What does this mean? In the near future, we will come to understand and work with new frequencies and a new world nervous system. But right now, we are feeling pushed hard to re-create our world and nearly everything in it. It will be much easier to create outside the box while eliminating limiting thoughts, beliefs and patterns. We are being showered in new light that has shaken the dust loose out of every corner of our being. We have felt the heebie-jeebies, fear, anxiety, worry, anger, depression, etc. There is no going back. The only way out is through. To survive this return to oneness (sounds so weird to say this) is to breathe, allow and trust. If you are not in the right situation, it will become painfully obvious, and if you don't shift, expect Spirit to rearrange it for you. Find your tribe! Maintain your daily spiritual practices whatever that may be, but don't judge yourself if they are not working for you anymore. They might not. Be considerate for those around you who are having a difficult time, but also remember your PERSONAL BOUNDARIES! Allow any fear to move through you and know it cannot hurt you, nor have any power over you. It is simply past primal, but scary, bits of memories. Stay in your heart. Your heart is your best compass. Trust Spirit...
